

#victimsupporteu

you won't believe it,
but 🗨️ exists

« If you are a victim of crime, the police are obliged to inform you about your rights and refer you to support services »

Victim Support
Europe

With Financial support from the Justice Programme
of the European Union

#victimsupporteu

you won't believe it,
but 🗨️ exists

The EU and Member States should ensure that the public is better informed on the rights of victims. Equally, victims themselves need to receive information about their rights without delay.

Victim Support
Europe

With Financial support from
the Justice Programme
of the European Union

#victimsupporteu

you won't believe it,
but 🗨️ exists

you won't believe it, but under EU law you have the right to receive information from the first contact with a competent authority, such as the police. This means that you are informed about your rights as stated in the Victims' Rights Directive from your first contact with a competent authority, without unnecessary delay.

Victim Support
Europe

With financial support from
the Justice Programme
of the European Union

#victimsupporteu

you won't believe it,
but  exists

In the EU, all victims of crime have the right to receive information and to access free and anonymous victim support services. This is how it should be.
Does it exist in your country?

LEARN MORE – JOIN OUR CAMPAIGN:

<http://itexists.vse-campaign.eu/>

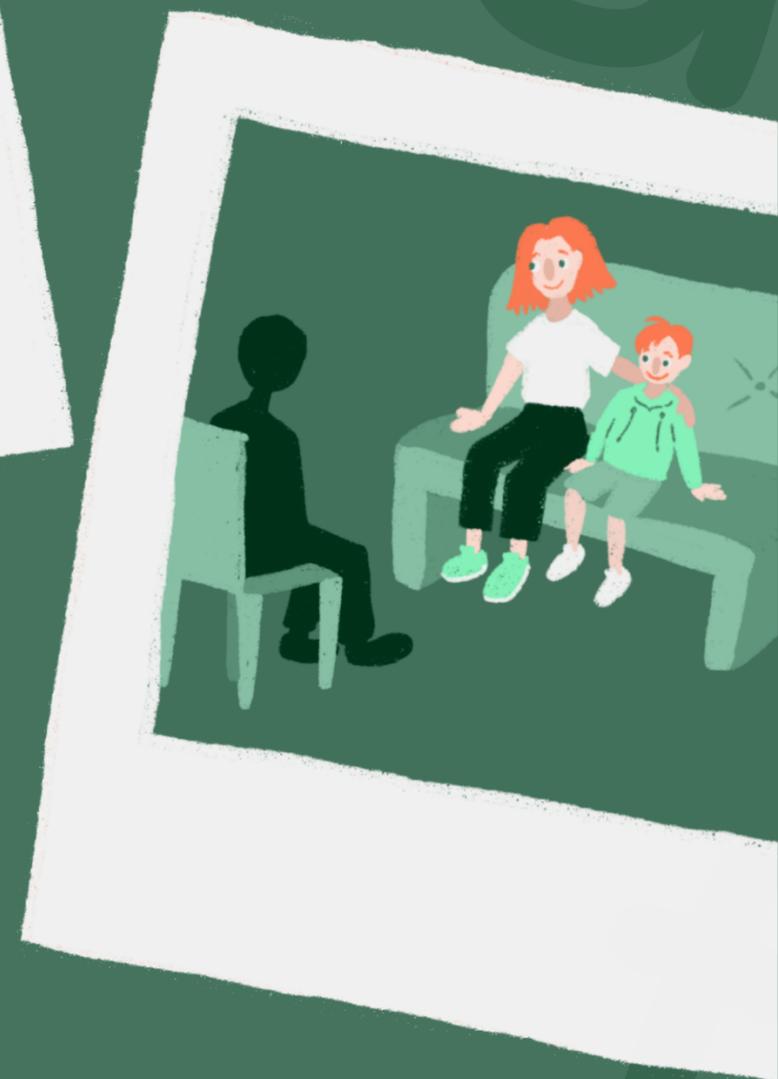

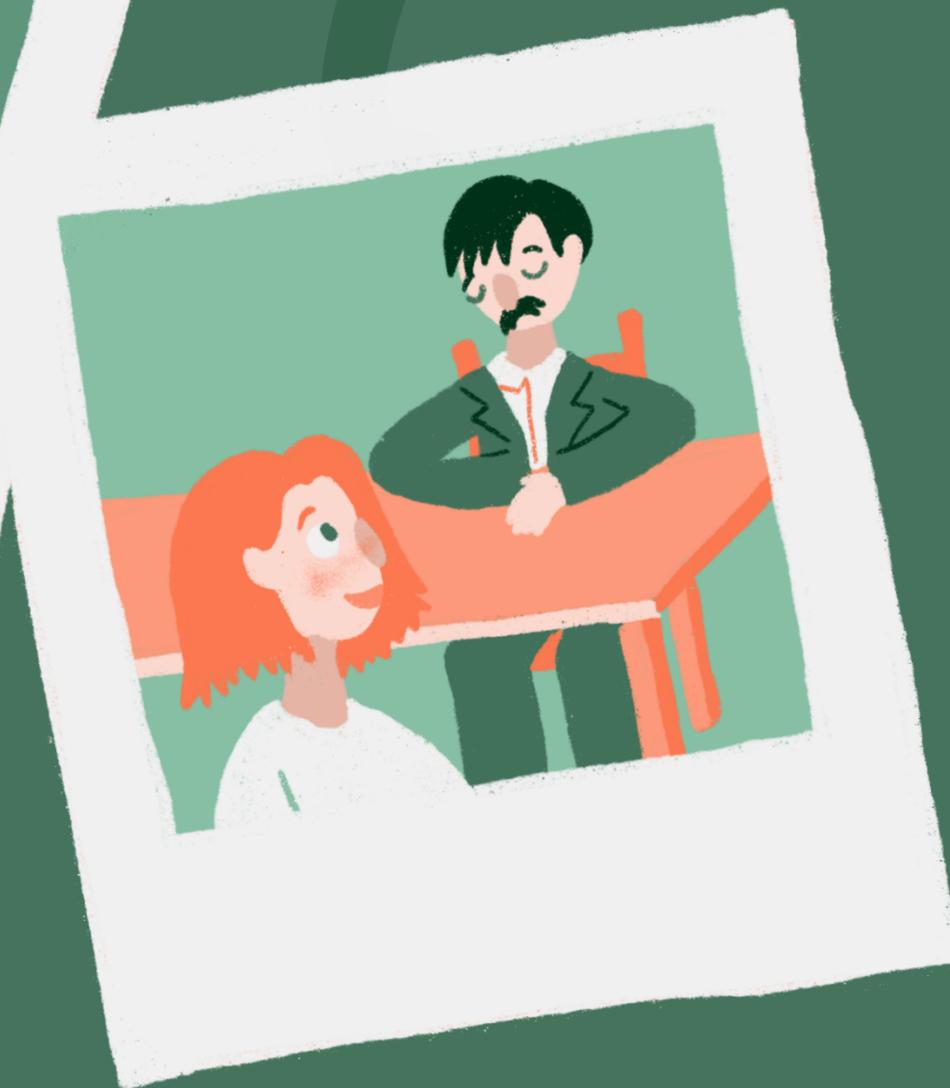

Victim Support
Europe

With Financial support from
the Justice Programme
of the European Union

#victimsupporteu

you won't believe it,
but  exists

you won't believe it, but

victim support services exist and they can explain your rights, provide you with legal assistance and offer psychosocial support.

Victim Support
Europe

With Financial support from the Justice Programme
of the European Union