« I call my friend, who puts me in touch with The Sexual Assault Centre where I am examined, and a DNA sample is taken. I am then referred to Victim Support Copenhagen and I immediately get a counselling session. Initially it is difficult for me to tell my story, but the counsellor – a woman of my mother's age – is kind and trustworthy. »

Before the rape, I had no idea that there was an organization like Victim Support Denmark

Their amazing volunteers give support and counseling around the clock to all kinds of victims of crime and even accidents. I was so grateful that I didn't have to pay for the support, and it was completely confidential. Thanks to my victim support worker, I learned to live in the place where the assault was committed – my own body.
