you won't believe it,
but 🗨️ exists

According to the law, every victim of crime has a right to support.

I did not know that support exists in my country. Victim Support Finland helped me on a practical level: to file a complaint with the police, to complete the administrative paperwork.

you won't believe it, but but under EU law you have the right to free & confidential victim support services that can assist you with practical issues and provide legal support.

The EU and Member States should ensure that information on the range of assistance offered by victim support services is publicly available

Victims should receive this information in a timely manner.

victim support exists, and support staff can offer legal and practical assistance.

In the EU, all victims of crime have the right to receive free confidential support from victim support services.

Does victim support exist in your country?

If not, take action! Write a letter to your MEP who can ensure that the EU delivers for victims of crime:
