

#victimsupporteu

you won't believe it,
but 🗣️ exists

The EU and Member States should ensure that professionals who come into contact with victims receive both general and specialist training to increase their awareness of the needs of victims and to enable them to deal with victims in an impartial, respectful and professional manner.

Victim Support
Europe

With Financial support from the Justice Programme
of the European Union

#victimsupporteu

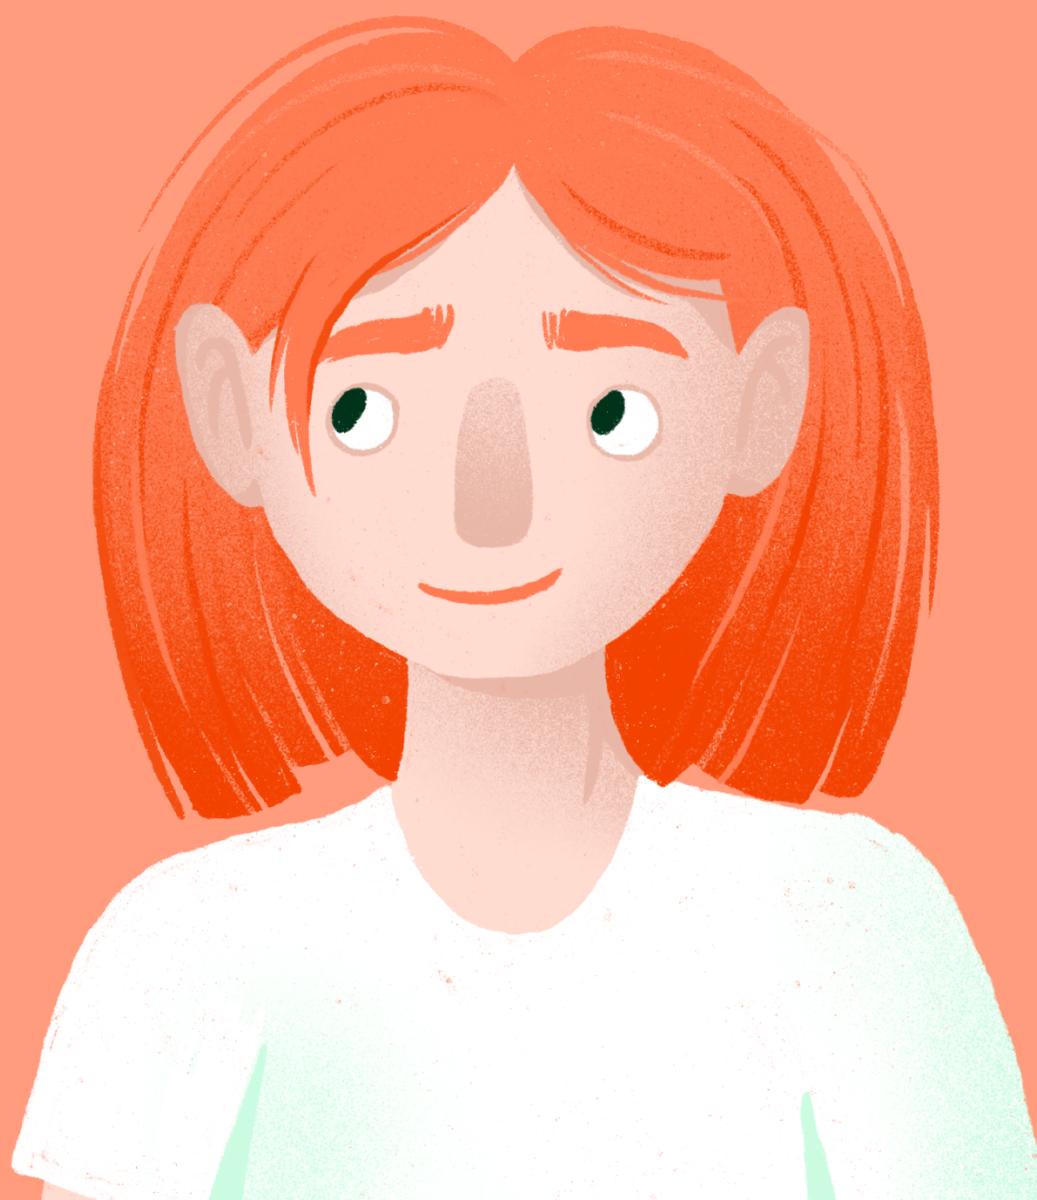

you won't believe it
but  exists

The support worker, who followed-up on my case kept me informed, she would call me to ask me how I was feeling, to get my news. I felt so cared for – it was amazing!

Learn more from Victoire's story:

Victim Support
Europe

With Financial support from
the Justice Programme
of the European Union

#victimsupporteu

you won't believe it,
but  exists

you won't believe it, but under EU law, if you are a victim of crime, you have the right to access support services, which can:

- Provide information on criminal justice systems and the role/rights of victims;
- Provide emotional and practical support;
- Accompany you, if necessary and permissible, during criminal proceedings.

Victim Support
Europe

#victimsupporteu

you won't believe it,
but  exists

In the EU, all victims of crime have the right to support and to interact with trained professionals.
This is how it should be,

does it exist in your country?

Learn more about victim support services in your country

#victimsupporteu

you won't believe it,
but  exists

you won't believe it, but

victim support exists and can provide both psychological and legal support, as long as needed.

Victim Support
Europe

With Financial support from
the Justice Programme
of the European Union