

#victimsupporteu

you won't believe it,
but  exists

you won't believe it, but victim support services exist, and can be accessed through different channels such as helplines, online support pages, and face to face.

Learn more from Wendy's story:

Victim Support
Europe

With Financial support from the Justice Programme
of the European Union

#victimsupporteu

you won't believe it
but 🗨️ exists

If I had had been able to reach out, through a helpline or online, or if a teacher at school or at ballet class had paid more attention to my depression, I could have recovered more quickly.
But at the time I was left alone.

Learn more from Wendy's story:

Victim Support
Europe

With Financial support from the Justice Programme
of the European Union

#victimsupporteu

you won't believe it,
but  exists

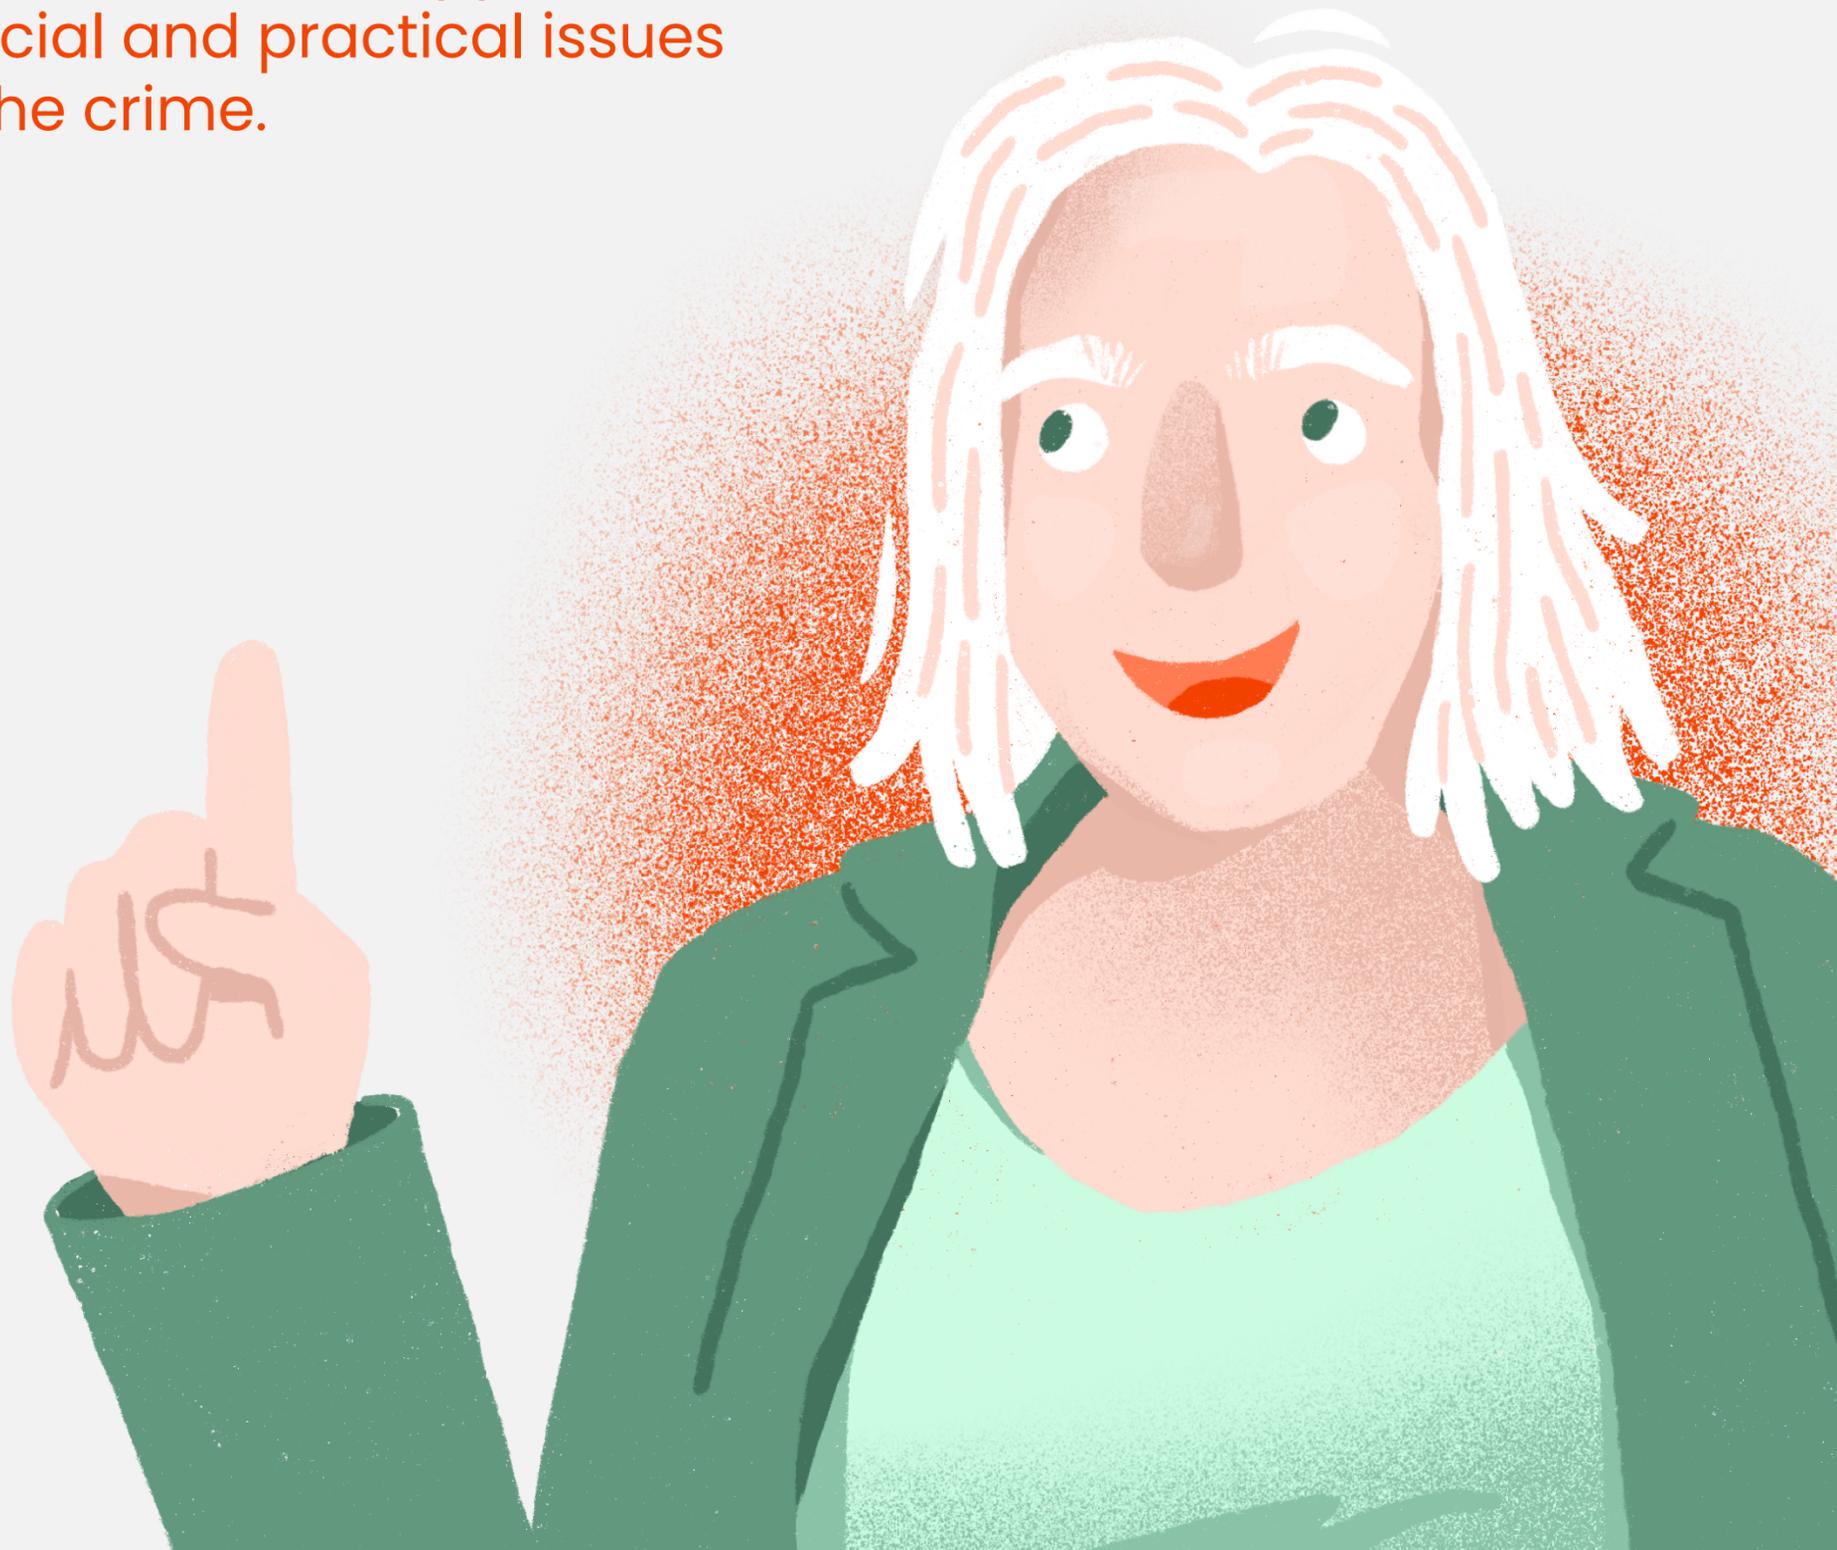

you won't believe it, but

under EU law you have the right to free confidential victim support services that give you information on your rights as a victim as well as emotional support and advice on financial and practical issues resulting from the crime.

Learn more from Wendy's story:

Victim Support
Europe

#victimsupporteu

you won't believe it,
but  exists

In the EU, all victims of crime have the right to access free confidential victim support services.

Does victim support exist in your country?

If not, take action! Write a letter to your MEP who can ensure that the EU delivers for victims of crime:

Victim Support
Europe

With Financial support from the Justice Programme
of the European Union

#victimsupporteu

you won't believe it,
but  exists

The EU and Member States should ensure that victim support services are available and accessible to all victims across the EU.

Learn more from Wendy's story:

With financial support from
the Justice Programme
of the European Union